

DANIEL SLONIM AND THE ACCESS DRUMMING GROUP

Access Inc is proud to nominate Daniel Slonim for the 2011 JCCV Community Recognition Awards.

Daniel first began volunteering at Access in 2006 after seeing a performance of the Access Inc Drumming Group at a UIA dinner. He began attending the weekly drumming group every Tuesday evening and soon found a niche as a friend, helper and coordinator to this diverse group of inspiring individuals.

In addition to weekly involvement Daniel, has participated in the Access Inc horse riding camp, Yom Ha atzmaut performances, flash mobs at Luna Park and Chanuka concerts at Fed square.

During 2011, Daniel accepted a position on the board of Access Inc contributing to the development of the organisation and lending his professional and greatly valued support to its growth.

Daniel's nomination by Access Inc is so very well deserved and in a small way reflects the gratitude and appreciation of all of those who have volunteered and worked alongside him. We acknowledge his ongoing commitment and support for all of the Access Inc Organisation and more, to those who participant in the Access Inc programs and events.

The Access Inc community is invited to share in the award ceremony which will be held at the Alexander Theatre, Monash University Campus Clayton on Monday 7 November.
